Counsel for the petitioner states that it has wrongly been noted by the Revisional authority, in paragraph 3 of the impugned order, Annexure P/7, that the petitioner has raised only one objection to challenge the order, dated 5.3.2004, passed by Additional Registrar (I), Cooperative Societies, Punjab. Counsel further states that many other grounds were raised, which have not been noted by the competent authority.

If that is so, the petitioner may approach the said authority by making necessary application.
